REPORTS THAT US BROADCASTS INFLUENCE
 CHINESE INTELLIGENTSIA TO QUESTION SOVIET MOTIVES

Kuang-chou, 29 January -- Reports from Kuang-chou indicate that many Chinese intelligentsia have been awakened by the recent broadcast from the US predicting that the Northeast will soon be facing a fate similar to that which befell Inner Mongolia as a result of following the dictates of the USSR. These Chinese intelligentsia are now questioning the Chinese Communist propaganda which says that the Soviet Union has no territorial designs on China and that her help to China is based exclusively on altruistic motives.

The present situation in the Northeast definitely supports the truth of the above prediction. Under the pro-internationalist Li Li-san, the Northeast is now being completely sovietized and even Mao Tse-tung and Chou En-lai, leaders of the CCP, are unable to exert any influence there. The Northeast is now being governed independently by the Northeast government, and it is generally believed by many that it will soon sever itself from the Central People's government to come under the control of the Soviet Union, similar to Inner Mongolia.

Many international observers are saying that since the area of China is so vast, Communization will be extremely difficult. The strategy of the USSR is to divide China into small administrative districts, independently governed, which will permit gradual absorption of China into the orbit of Soviet influence.
